About on Two and a Half,

Yesterday afternoon Mr. George W. Van Werden related a case where a large Inc. intelligent Shepherd dog, belonging to Mr. Dane Smith of Viola township, performed a self amputation of his fore leg. The animal was frisking about in front of his master while he was mowing some rass in the pacture. When the team was roing along in a rapid walk the dog, in his highness of spirits got in front of the mower. Before the ream could be stopped the canine's right hind foot had been cut off and the left fore leg was cut half in two. There was only one groan which excaped him. With pleading eyes he look-"d up to his master, saying as well as
